Seminar Series 2009

March 2
Associate Professor Adam Possamai, University of Western Sydney, School of Social Sciences
Topic: Yoda goes to The Vatican: Religion and Popular Culture

April 6
Professor George Galster, Wayne State University, Detroit

May 4
Professor Kevin Dunn, University of Western Sydney, School of Social Sciences
Topic: Public attitudes towards hijab-wearing in Australia: Uncovering the bases of tolerance and intolerance

June 1
Dr Michael Houlbrook, University of Western Sydney, School of Social Sciences
Topic: A 'Social Solidarity' model for sustaining equity in higher education for non-traditional learners - the contribution of work-based learning

August 3
Jack Barbalet, University of Western Sydney, School of Social Sciences
Topic: Chinese Capitalism and Chinese Religion

September 7
Therese Kenna, University of Western Sydney, School of Social Sciences
Topic: Private community: the lived experiences of privatism and community in a gated residential neighbourhood

October 12
Mariana Valdverde, University of Toronto
Topic: The Poverty of Community Consultations

November 16
Assoc Prof Jake Lynch, Director, Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies, University of Sydney
Topic: A Global Standard for Reporting Conflict: New Directions in Peace Journalism

December 7
Dr Mary Hawkins, School of Social Sciences, University of Western Sydney
Topic: Becoming Indigenous; ethnic and other mobile identities in Kalimantan

Upcoming seminars

Please refer to the School of Social Sciences Seminar Series information for details of upcoming presentations