PhD Scholarship Opportunity
A full-time, 3 year PhD scholarship is available in the Social Justice and Social Change Research Group (SJSC), at the University of Western Sydney, Bankstown Campus. This scholarship is on offer to post graduate candidates with a strong honours degree or equivalent who have exceptional research potential who wish to/or are undertaking higher degree by research (HDR) program. Applicants do not have to be resident in metropolitan Sydney.

The position is to work with Associate Professor Moira Carmody in the following areas of research:

- Ethical sex and violence prevention with specific population groups
- Ethical sex in the on-line environment
- Working with men around violence prevention education
- Other areas of research that include a focus on sexual violence and/or violence prevention education.

Associate Professor Moira Carmody

Areas of Expertise:
Sexual violence, young people, non-violent education, sexual ethics, gender, sexuality, education and social policy, crime and non-violence

Bio Details:
Associate Professor Moira Carmody (PhD) has been working in the area of sexual assault and violence prevention since 1983. She has expertise in the areas of sexual assault counselling, state and federal policy development, education programs, research and publication. She has conducted numerous large scale research projects on sexual assault prevention and is an experienced postgraduate supervisor. Her most recent book and violence prevention program Sex & Ethics: young people and ethical sex were published by Palgrave Macmillan in early 2009.

For further information on the Sex & Ethics research and education program see www.sexualethics.org.au

Appointment type: Full-time 3 year, PhD Scholarship

Research enquiries: Associate Professor Moira Carmody, m.carmody@uws.edu.au

Application enquiries: Janette Welsby, j.welsby@uws.edu.au

Application and submission details: Please visit http://www.uws.edu.au/research/future_research_students/apply

Applications Close: 5.30pm Friday, 16th October, 2009

SJSC, College of Arts
University of Western Sydney
Bankstown Campus
Locked Bag 1797, Penrith South DC  NSW  1797