The Writing and Society Research Group, University of Western Sydney warmly invites you to attend the opening reception of the

2011 China Australia Literary Forum

6.30pm Tuesday 30 August 2011

Australia Council

372 Elizabeth Street (cnr Cooper Street)

Surry Hills NSW 2010

In this important literary encounter, hosted by the UWS Writing and Society Research Group, ten prominent Chinese writers are visiting Sydney from 30 August to 2 September 2011 for in-depth discussions with their Australian counterparts about the role of writing in the contemporary world, the critical issues for writing in each society, and the prospects for literary and publishing interaction between China and Australia in future.

You are also invited to attend any of the forum panel sessions and public events running from 31 August- 2 September at the NSW Teachers' Federation Conference Centre, 23 - 33 Mary Street, Surry Hills.

Please see the attached schedule for details.

Please note that attendance to all events is free, but numbers are limited, particularly for the panel sessions, so RSVP is essential. Attendance will be taken on a first come first served basis until sessions are full.*

Please RSVP by email to h.skrzynski@uws.edu.au by August 26 and please specify whether you will be attending the opening and/or any of the panel sessions and public events. Please note down the title, time and date of each session you wish to attend.
