3 - PROCEDURES CHECKLIST

Stage One - The Application

2. Complete an Application Form.
3. You will need to seek two academic referees who are familiar with your work and who are happy to complete the referee’s report which is available online at http://pubsites.uws.edu.au/international/exchange.html
5. Take the Transfer of Credit Form to your course advisor with course information from the partner university for approval.
6. Download and copy subject descriptions and information regarding contact hours (plus assessment schedule where possible). If you have difficulty obtaining detailed course information from the overseas university website, please contact UWS International Exchange Office staff for assistance at exchange@uws.edu.au. UWS International Exchange Office can email an overseas institution on your behalf provided the information required is not already on their website.
7. Submit application to UWS International Exchange Office before the application deadline (31 July for Autumn departures and 31 January for Spring departures).

Stage Two - Acceptance by UWS

1. After the application deadline an interview may be required. A panel of academic and UWS International Exchange Office staff will consider applications based upon academic merit and personal suitability for an exchange abroad.

- Students eligible to receive Austudy/Youth Allowance are entitled to a continuation of payment whilst on an official exchange program.
- International students are encouraged to apply, although study is not allowed within your home country.

Students are responsible for organising:
- The appropriate visa. Ensure you consult the respective consulate website as soon as possible as costs and visa requirements may vary between countries and can be a time consuming process.
- Travel arrangements.
- Accommodation is generally organised as part of the host university application process once a student is accepted. The UWS International Exchange Office is not responsible for organising student accommodation, but will assist where possible.
